Big Easy

Big, bold, butch American food

Big Easy's new flagship on Maiden Lane is a loud and brash beast of a restaurant with room for up to 250-covers across its two floors. The look brings to mind a well-used US barbecue or crab shack and the enormous menu follows suit. There's something for everyone, as long as it's butch and American: fried seafood, barbecue, whole lobsters, steaks, burgers, sandwiches and salads - all plus-sized. The drinks list is as expansive as the food menu with boozy slushies, cocktails on tap, X-rated shakes, well-chosen draught beers and a strong showing of bottled craft beer from the UK and the US.
